VISSER GOES EAST AND NICHOLSON IS HERE FOR A MATCH

Pete Visser, Ogden heavyweight wrestler, will leave Friday evening for the east to participate in several wrestling matches that have been arranged for him with the foremost mat men. He has a match with Charles Cutler on July 4th, and three more later, one being with Earl Caddock.

Visser expects to return to Ogden about the middle of September, and enter the ring for a series of contests in this city. One match which he is determined to get is with Jack Harbertson. Pete stated this morning that he would wrestle Harbertson, if he had to meet him on the street, because his previous defeat by Harbertson is a black mark on his record and he will not retire from the ring until he has stricken it out.

"Harbertson is a good man," said Visser this morning, "and I do not underestimate his ability, but I am confident that I can throw him. The same is true of London. I am going to put forth every effort to secure a return match with him and I am confident that he cannot throw me."

George Nicholson, the well known lightweight from the Pacific coast is also in town, and is on the lookout for a match. It is rumored that he has his eye on Tanner of the Pingree gym.

IVAN L. HOBSON GOES TO A POSITION IN WASHINGTON

The many Ogden friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan L. Hobson of Laramie, Wyo., will be pleased to hear of the success obtained by Mr. Hobson, who has accepted a position with the government at Washington, D. C. Mrs. Hobson was formerly Anna Macbeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Macbeth of Ogden. Mr. Hobson is the son of Eliza C. Hobson of Ogden.

In speaking of the new position to be filled by Mr. Hobson, the Laramie Republican says:

Ivan L. Hobson, who for several years has been state leader in Boys' and Girls' club work, University of Wyoming, extension division, left yesterday for Washington, D. C., where he has accepted a position as assistant to O. H. Benson, who is in charge of the Boys' and Girls' club work all over the country. Friends of Mr. Hobson are offering hearty congratulations because he has been chosen for so important a place, and those who know him and the work he has done feel sure that he will fill it with credit. Mr. Hobson became a member of the extension faculty in Wyoming directly after his graduation from the agricultural college of Utah in 1914, and has held the post of state leader of Boys' and Girls' work since that time. Although the movement is a comparatively new one in this state, it has been rapidly gaining in importance, much of its popularity being due to the work of the extension faculty, under the leadership of Mr. Hobson. Mr. Hobson has a wife and two charming daughters, who will be missed in university circles, where they have many friends.

The special train reached Ogden shortly after 3:30 o'clock. The visitors were met at the depot by the local committee and taken to the canyon in special street cars and automobiles.

One of the big things brought out at the banquet was a tribute to the grocers of Ogden and Salt Lake for their hospitality.

The address of welcome was delivered by Mayor T. S. Browning, who was introduced by J. M. Carlson, the toastmaster. President John H. Schaefer, of the national association, made the response. John W.
